NOTES FROM THE

LEGISLATURE

By H. H. WHITELEY

lation, liquor legislation, revision of the election laws and the appropriations. Of course there are numerous Are we not at achool every day, esother things of considerable importance, but the really weighty matters are those I have mentioned. The railroad committee has abou decided to report out some bill giving the railroads an increase in passenger rates, and the fight will then be trans ferred to the floor of the House. It is impossible to forecast the result There are but few legislators who come right out and say that the railroads are clearly not entitled to the increase. Those who are apparently opposing the increase content themselves with saying that they have got to be convinced of the justice of the claims of the railroads and that thus far they have not been shown; on the other hand, there are those who are of the opinion that the railroads have Phone made a case; that the development of the state depends upon them; that the interests of the manufacturers and shippers are suffering through the inability of the railroads to provide better service for lack of funds and that the trend of legislation for twenty years has been against the railroads, until the time has come to let up to the interest of better service.

The fight on liquor legislation is centered about the submission of the question of state-wide prohibition. At present indications are that such a bill will pass and it will be up to the people. The bill to do away with the Michigan Bonding Co. monopoly is being fought in the Senate, while the bill to limit saloons to one to every 500 people will not come out of the committee until a hearing has been had. The subject is, of course, a vital one and is receiving careful attention. The plan of the ways and means committee is to keep the total down to that of two years ago, so the taxpayers may rest assured that state taxes will be no higher than they were the past two years.

There is a wide-spread demand for the revision of the primary election law, and that subject is receiving most careful attention. The idea is to simplify as much as possible and still preserve the right of each party to make its own nominations without the interference of those belonging to any other party.

Apparently there is no disposition on the part of either senators or representatives to change the present nortgage tax law which levies a tax of fifty cents on each $100 when the nortgage is filed.

Three bills to increase this tax have een introduced. One provides for $1.00 tax on each $100, another a tax of fifty cents annually on each $100, with fifty per cent of this amount left with the county in which the mort gage is given, while another bill places the annual tax on mortgages at thirty cents for each $100.

The farmera' legislative club is not ctive in support of any change in the present law. The farmer members fear that to tax mortgages too high is o simply add that much more to the nterest on mortgages, and as the lands in Northern Michigan are being leveloped rapidly, when money can e had, they do not desire to add bur lens to interest charges through adlitional mortgage taxes. A public nearing will be given on the matter he evening of March 18th.

"Rainbow fry is planted in the upper reaches of your streams. In the fourth year they have attained a weight of several pounds and drop down stream after their spawning season to where the kinds of food and living conditions are more suitable to their requirements and size. They longer depend on the minute water life for food, but have appetites and capacity for crayfish, frogs, millerheads, mice, small turtles and the ike. Now the fish is one of your steelheads.

"In the sixth year the fish may weigh eight, ten, perhaps twelve pounds. Nature talks to the fish and tells it of the great waters below, as she tells the carrier pigeon the way for return flight home. In Lake Michigan a year, the environment has changed again the pigment of the fish and its appearance. Now you have your 'land-locked salmon.'

State Physicist Wyller of Stavanger writes as follows for a daily newspa per: "If anyone should be particularly interested in knowing whether I believe in miracles in general, I may as well state that I do so. By a miracle I understand an action or an event which cannot be brought about except by forces within us and outside of us which are unknown to us and which, therefore, can be called supernatural, which is the same as to say that they are not natural. It seems to me that he must be blind who denies the preswant to acknowledge them because escape our present methods of investigation. How they are put into action, that is something of which we know little or nothing. Perhaps may say this much, however, that they are released only by some psychical manifestation, foremost of which is the one which we call faith; and when they appear so rarely the reason is that the key which unlocks them, namely, faith, as it generally appears in the world, so rarely corresponds to Lansing-The state board of health is to have $10,000 additional added to its regular appropriation this sessio which Secretary Burkart says will be state board of health is $15,000. The bouse committee has reported out favorably a bill carrying a $25,000 ap propriation, and this additional amount will be expended in a fight against the white plague.

"I wish the amount could have been larger, so that we could have prove to the people that the money would be well expended," said Dr. Burkart. "However, I think that by careful figuring we can show $50,000 results with the $10,000 we will devote to fighting the disease."

This amount that will be expended fighting tuberculosis and the appro priations given the two sanatorium will assist materially in lending state aid to what private individuals will do during the next two years.

The house committee on public health has favorably reported state board of health's bill providing that, while power shall remain with the governor to appoint the secretary of the board, who shall also administrative officer of the department, the board shall designate wh shall be appointed. The bill has already passed the senate. The board having the bill introduced, asked the present secretary, Dr. Burk art, if this arrangement would be agreeable to him. The doctor assure them that it would be. The under standing is that the board, as soon as the bill becomes a law, will designate Dr. Burkart for secretary for a term of six years, and that Gov. Ferris will appoint him.

ELUSIVE GERMAN RAIDER IS CAUGHT AFTER LONG CHASE.

SOLE SURVIVOR OF FLEET

Admiralty Reports That Three Britisi Cruisers Found Lone Ship Off Chile On Sunday. London-The admiralty announced Monday evening that the Gorman

ruiser Dresden, long sought by British warships, had been sunk off the

Juan Fernandez Island, 400 miles west of Valparaiso, Chile, on Sunday. Thus the sole survivor of the flee that routed Admiral Cradock and in turn routed by Sturdee was destroyed and on all the waters of the world save of Germany itself, there now remains at liberty but two of the Kaiser's war vessels—the Karlsruhe and the Kron Prinz Wilhelm. And of these only the Karlsruhe was built o fight, the other being a converted merchantman.

Three British cruisers comprised the squadron that finally caught the dusive German raider after a chase that has lasted up and down the west oast of South America, in the straits of Magellan and on the Pacific since December 8, when the vessel got away from Admiral Sturdee's fleet.

Once caught there was no escape, for her speed had vanished in months of cruising and her guns were match for those of her pursuers. The Glasgow alone could have sunk her and with the powerful Kent, carrying 14 6-inch guns on hand, the argument vas short and decisive.

This is the first time in the present var that a German warship has struck her colors. The Gnelsenau, the Scharnhorst, Lelpzig, Emden, the Numbers and the Bluncher down fighting.

A Night of Adventure.

The federal government agreed to say nothing, to put no obstacles in the way of the Russian agent, provided he ly clashing with the New York police authorities. It was a recognized fact that the local police force wanted the newspaper glory which would attend the crushing of the Black Hundred. It would be an exploit. But their glory back with him to Russia.

Many strange things happened that night, the night of the final adven-

Florence sat in her room reading. The book was "Oliver Twist," not the pleasantest sort of book to read under the existing circumstances. Several times—she had reached the place where Fagin overheard Nancy's confession—she fancled she heard doors closing softly, but credited it to her imagination. Poor Nancy, who wanted to be good but did not find time to Florence possessed a habit faples or candy when we are reading So she rang the bell for her maid, intending to ask her to bring up some apples. She turned to her reading, presently to break off and strike the bell again. Where was that maid? She waited perhaps five minutes, then laid down the book and began to investi

There was not a servant to be found in the entire house! What in the world could that mean? Used as she was to heartrending suspense, she was sone the less terrified. Something had taken the servants from the house from whence was the danger to come this time? Where was Jones? Why did he not return as he had promised? It was long past the hour when he said he would be back.

She went into the library and picked proof have you that you are what you

At the end of ten minutes the editor laid down the copy. He opened a draw er and took out two envelopes. The little to himself.

This envelope contained a check for $2.500, two round-trip first-class tickets to Liverpool, together with innumer able continental tickets such as are issued to tourists.

"Forget it, my boy, forget it. You ought to know that in this office we don't employ blind men. The whole staff is on. There you are, a fat check get married; and if you return before the three months are up I'll fire you myself on general principles.'

A great contrast is afforded be tween the Buenos Aires and Pacific dosa, which rises only 2,405 feet in 639 miles, giving an average rise of less than one-tenth of one per cent, and the Chilean Transandean railroad. which rises 7,776 feet in a total length of only 44 miles. The highest point reached is 10,512 feet above sea level in the center of the international tun for every dollar that he has I will add nel (10,390 feet long), which cuts through the watershed that forms the hundred: and when you get tired of boundary between the two countries.

The line follows the valley of the Aconcagus river, the inequalities of the fall of which it more or less repeats; reaching in the upper sections a maximum gradient of eight per cent, the steepest in the world. The Argentine Transandean railroad is similar, and the same rack system is used; but the railroad ascends much more gradually up the course of the Mendoza river, the rise being 8,100 feet in a length of 111 miles and the maximum grade only six per cent.

The use of rack grades necessitates the strictest limitation of speed, no train being allowed to exceed nine and one-third miles an hour either up or down upon the rack, while safety is further insured by the provision on all trains of automatic brakes, non-auto control brakes, repression brakes and hand brokes. from New York to Buenos Aires is about 5,670 miles, while that from New York to Valparaiso through the Panama canal is about 4,630 miles. The distance from Valparaiso to Buenos Aires by rail is 876 miles. By this railroad Chile has been brought nearer to Europe by ten to fifteen days and nearly 2,000 miles. The journey between the Chilean and Argentine capitals occupies now only thirty-six hours, as sgainst the fifteen age through the Straits of Magellan while the cost of the journey has been reduced from $195 to $62.

It is reported that commerce has been greatly stimulated by this shortening of distance and time and that not only has the easier journey increased the number of visitors, partly on pleasure, partly on business, with a corresponding increase in the inflow of foreign capital, but it has reduced the time required for correspondence and the transmission of postal parcels The reduction of time on letters of credit results in a corresponding re duction of interest payable upon them Notwithstanding all the advantage that have been made evident in the four years since this service commenced it is unquestionable that they could be developed to a far greater extent.

Locomotive and Rall. At the meeting of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers in Paris last July, Anatole Mallet, the inventor of the Mailet articulated locomotive. called attention to the great changes that, during the past eighty-five years, have taken place in the relative weight of the locomotives to the rail Monsieur Mallet showed that five tons ran on rails that weighed 34.2 pounds a yard; that is the engine was 327 times the weight of the rail a yard. In 1846 engines of 22 tons ran on rails of 70.52 pounds a yard; that is, the engine was 700 times the weight of the rail a yard. Finally, in the United States, a Mallet engine with ten coupled axles, having 245 tons' adhesive weight, has been put into service on 111-pound rails; that is, the engine is 4.950 times the weight of the rail a yard. Incidentally, this progr increase in the relative weight of the locomotive to the rail shows how great has been the improvement in the quality of steel rails.-Youth's Companion.

Ravages of Rust.

One large railroad system suffers a loss of more than eighteen tons of metal daily, due solely to the effect preventive is to keep the metal sur face always covered with a suitable paint. Some idea of the costliness of this remedy, however, may be gained $5,000 annually to paint one large railway bridge alone. A typical case of this kind is the Forth bridge in Scotland, upon which a corps of painters are constantly employed, as the weather makes repainting of one end of this large structure necessary before the workers have reached the other. Although experiments have demonstrated that pure iron surrounded by oxygen does not rust, and acid, is necessary for the production of rust, the secret of manufacturing rustless steel and iron remains to be discovered.

til the vegetables are tender. In broiling steak over coals or un der gas or in pan broiling, the steak should be quickly seared on both sides to keep in all the juice, then the cook ing may be prolonged more slowly until the degree of rareness is reached to suit the taste.

Steak With Clams or Oysters.—Broil a sirioin for five minutes, searing well on both sides, remove to a platter, butter well and cover with clams from which the tough muscle has been re moved or with fresh oysters. Sprinkle with sait and pepper and dot with bits of butter. Place on the top grate of a hot oven and cook until the shellfish are done.

Hollandaise sauce is another; to prepare; wash a half cupful of butter, and divide it into thirds. Put one piece in a small saucepan or double boller, add a tablespoonful of femon juice and the yolks of two eggs, sti constantly with a wire whisk while the mixture is cooking; when the but ter is melted, add another piece and then the third. Remove from the heat and add salt, a dash of cayenne and a tablespoonful of finely-minced If left a minute too long the parsley. sauce will separate. The street costumes are cleverly shaped, comfortable, and clean cut. Their tailoring is a thing of faultless beauty. Skirts are short and just and flaring enough for comfort in walking and for atyle. Jackets and coats are easy and smart, improving the figure which wears them properly. One may bave a choice as to length as they are shown in both long and short models.

Materials are durable, old favorites being to the fore in the smartest Decorations are few and elegant, buttons and straps and the introduction of outside pockets pro-viding most of them. But it is in amazing cleverness in cutting both coats that this season has distinguished itself above others.

In party gowns skirts are more ample, but made of the airlest fabrics over satin foundations. Bodices are modestly high, and satin bindings are used to finish the flounces and overdresses of net or crepe or chiffon. With all this fluffiness there is a little touch of the austere in the bodice usually. In the picture given here a street suit of swell shepherd's plaid is shown. Plaits at the sides of both front and back produce slightly flaring panels, the skirt being made up of four of these. The jacket opens in a "V" at the front, with revers terminating at the bust line and an inlay of velvet which is carried to the high turnover collar. A strap at each side of the back is

Three Pictures from God's Album

By REV B. B. SUTCLIFFE

* TEXT—Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent towards Sodom. But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the Lord exwicked and sinners befor ceedingly.—Gen. 13:12, 12.

Someone has said that the Old Tes ament is God's picture gallery where he has given us in picture form the doctrines and truths he devel ops in the New Out text has three of these pictures, in which three classes of persons are described — Abram, Lot and Living for Self. Taking these in reverse order, we can see how the men of Sodom Illustrate a large number of people today. They are those whose under lying principle might be termed liv The man who's consoling him gets a ing for self alone. They do not care for real religion, but are occupied entirely with the things of time and sense. What they will eat today or what they will wear tomorrow is to them vastly more important than how future. Their effort is concerned with this life alone, and they live and work and play as though there were no such thing as eternity and no such person as God. They come to the end like the man who told himself he could re tire from business because he had much goods laid up for many years and he could now afford to enjoy the fruits of his toll and eat, drink and be merry. But he had laid up all his goods on the earth; they were not taken from him, but he was taken from them, and it is no wonder the Lord says he was a fool. The class under consideration are not neces sarily bad people, for usually they are tolerant of religion, as the people of Sodom did not mind having Lot in their midst. But the religion that draws the picture of the end of these who live for self alone. They come to the end so hardened against relig ion that they court their own doom, as the men of Sodom were overcome by the catastrophe which overwhelmed both them and their city.

Living for Self and God.

The second picture is that of Lot, in whom the half-and-half Christian is easily seen. This man illustrates those who seem to have, as the under lying principle of life, the idea of liv-ing for self and for God too. They attempt to serve two masters, and, fail-ing to serve either, come to the end with nothing to show for their labor. They trust their own vision and live by sight and not by faith. Lot looked on the well-watered plain and, as far as he could see, it was the very thing he ought to have, the very thing that was best for him. But, as God saw, it was the very thing he ought not to have, the thing that was worst for him. He hazarded everything he had or hoped to have—himself, his family, his property—on what he could see with his own eyes, when he might have chosen what God could see. He When the silk bonnet has nor out and out for God. He had tried of God. But he ended with awful disaster, losing his property, his testi-mony, his family—all that he had. Abram. The underlying principle of his life seems to be that he had made up his mind to serve God alone. He as far from being a perfect man. He made many mistakes and even committed some sins. But underneath he was living for God. He had learned "thou shalt have no other God before me" and his life was governed by this principle. He recognized that he he was and had and hoped to be be longed to that Master to do with as the Master desired. Where he was to be and go depended on that Mas er's direction. He would not lean to his own understanding nor judge by the sight of his eyes nor walk by his own wisdom. He would gladly take the seeming second best from God, be-lieving that whatever appearances might say, they could not tell the whole truth. It looked to Abram anything but good when he was asked to give his own son to God, but eve that was good in the eyes of God, and now that the story is all told, it is good in the eyes of Abram too. If those who are gone could, from their graves, gaze over the path they have trodden and then speak to us. the unanimous testimony would be that God's way is best.

KIDNEYS CLOG UP FROM EATING TOO MUCH MEAT

Take Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers-Meat Forms Uric Acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority who warns us

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidnevs will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neulonger a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful efferves cent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.-Adv.

An intimate knowledge of the manner in which profound changes in the mechanism of the gastro-intestinal tract may easily come about at a very early age is of the greatest importance to every person desirous of endowing his offspring with the fundamentals of his offspring with the fundamentals of soal ever appears to be something just a happy and successful life. It is argued by many that such knowledge is not necessary because which opposes such resistance just as natural instincts are alleged to be a all matter in nature is opposed to sufficient guide. But this is not true, for humanity's environment has changed more during the last 50 years than during the previous 299,950 years of its probable minimum exist-ence, and "instincts" do not count we have not sufficient time to develop "instincts" required by experime ditions, and must, therefore, try to use reason instead.

Particular attention is called to the large intestine comprising the cecum, the colon, the sigmoid flexure and the rectum. The cecum is the blind pouch or sac in which the large intes tine begins and into which the ilium or small intestine, opens from one side. The vermiform (wormlike) appendix is attached to the cecum, and this is the little body which makes us so much trouble under the name of appendicitis. REP. PETERMAN HAS PREPARED BILL TO AMEND PRIMARY LAW.

NEW IDEAS ARE EMBODIED

Proposed Measure Would Require Successful Candidate to Receive Twenty-Five Per Cent of Votes.

In the event that no candidate receives twenty-five per cent of his party vote at the primary, Petermann's bill provides that a convention shall be held at which a candidate shall be nominated. However, similar laws have been declared unconstitutional by the su preme court of at least twenty other states, and as foreign corporations are doing a thriving business in trading stamp privileges in Michigan at the present time, Benator Odell, who vo ted for the passage of the bill fou years ago, is of the opinion that any existing legal barrier should be re moved, and he has introduced a bill to reneal the law on the statute books at the present time, which has never been enforced.

Fashionable Goods Not Wanted.

That Latin Americans insist on hav ne just the kind of article that suite their taste is illustrated by an incident in Guatemaia. An old gentleman in the interior, a large ranch owner, had always been used to a certain kind of necktie, and asked a local house to buy a number of them for him. The house ordered several from an American concern, but the latter wrote back that that kind of necktic had been out of date for 20 years, and sent several of the latest design. These were refused, however, the old kind was obtained from Europe, and the American house lost what might have been an opening wedge to a good trade.

It's Foolish to Suffer

You may be brave enough to stand backache, or headache, or dizziness. But if, in addition, urination is disordered, look out! If you don't try to fix your sick kidneys, you may fall into the clutches of kidney trouble before you know it. But if you live more carefully and help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger as well.

A Michigan Case

James F. Reed, 777
Portage St. Kalamazoo, Mich., says: "I had sharp twingse
through my back and felt weak and nervous. My ankles were so budly swollen I couldn't wear my shoes. My back got stiff, too. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and
three boxes fixed me
up all right."

WHY NOT TRY POPHAM'S

A Message To Homen

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak.

appetite and at times was very weak.

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. Honnuno, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Made Me Well and Strong.

MACEDON, N.Y.—"I was all run down and very thin in flesh, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep and was weak, and felt badly all the time. The doctors said I had poor blood and what I had was turning to water. I took different medicines which did not help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. Free Chace, R. No. 2, Macedon, N.Y.

The Change of Life.

Beltsville, Mo.—"By the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I have successfully passed through a most trying time, the Change of Life. I suffered with a weakness, and had to stay in bed three days at a time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I am praising it for the benefit of other women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. W. S. Duvall, Route No. 1, Reltaville, Md.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.
